

Senior Players Code of Conduct

Everyone involved in the Boroughmuir Rugby whether a player, volunteer, coach, official, Club member or spectator is expected to uphold Scottish Rugby's core values:

Leadership : Engagement : Achievement : Enjoyment : Respect

To this end, the following Code of Conduct is in place at the club for Senior players:

Always respect the match officials; abuse to match officials will not be tolerated in any fashion.

Play fairly with sportsmanship and respect.

Respect your team mates, opponents, coaches supporters and yourself

Always abide by the laws of the game.

Never allow your emotions to cloud your judgement.

Once the game is finished make sure you shake hands with your opposition, the officials and the opposition coaches.

Lead by example both on and off the pitch – be a role model for younger players

Always be on time for matches.

Always make sure you have the correct playing kit.

Always inform your Head Coach if you are unable to attend training.

Always make sure you have noted your availability for selection for the next game before training on the Tuesday

All players must respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of age, gender, ability, race, cultural background, religious beliefs or sexual identity.

All players will complete registration to Boroughmuir Rugby and Scottish Rugby SCRUMS and pay appropriate membership fees

ONE CLUB • ONE CULTURE • ONE COMMUNITY