

Conduct in the Clubhouse

Everyone involved in the Boroughmuir Rugby whether a player, volunteer, coach, official, Club member or spectator is expected to uphold Scottish Rugby's core values:

Leadership : Engagement : Achievement : Enjoyment : Respect

Boroughmuir Rugby is committed to providing a safe, welcoming and friendly environment for all players, coaches, officials and visitors. To this end, the following Code of Conduct is in place when in our Clubhouse:

Always follow and abide by club procedures and our venue policy when booking or using any areas of the club house.

Always respect the bar staff and catering staff.

Always respect visitors and guests.

Members, players and guests will not bring or consume their own alcohol in the clubhouse.

Make sure you are responsible for the quality of the premises at all times.

Violence or abuse to any member or staff will not be tolerated and may result in a ban from the club.

Bar management are not to be challenged on decisions to refuse alcohol to any individual.

No members other than on-duty bar staff or named officials of the club will be allowed behind the bar at any time.

Any damage caused by a member will be the sole responsibility of that member to rectify regardless of the cost.

Any damage caused by a member to the club facilities may result in a ban from the club.

All members and players will abide by our drug and alcohol policy.

ONE CLUB • ONE CULTURE • ONE COMMUNITY
